Dear Parents and Carers

Beauty & the Beast!

They danced, they sang, they acted, they conquered.

Wow, and wow again.

Watching the performances that our children put in each year literally brings a tear to my eye. How can they be this good? How can they be so professional? How do they make it look so easy?

I think we take for granted after 4 years of spectacular performances that the children on the stage are 9, 10- and 11-years old.

It's unbelievable.

From the whole cast dancing on stage choreography, to performing in the aisles, to singing unwavering solos.

I know everyone on each evening loved every minute.

Thank you to everyone who has either spoken to me in person or written in thanking us.

I can't possibly mention everyone involved and it can't be done without a whole team effort, but special thanks must go out to Miss Roadnight and Mrs Smyth whose passion for providing the absolute best for the children is simply second to none.

Aladdin, The Lion King, Oliver and now Beauty & The Beast. Now the head scratching begins for what comes next, but we can guarantee it will be another smash hit of a show.

England v Spain

The usual ridiculous bank holiday suggestions are all over the media once more as England reach another Euros Final (I can't believe I just used the word 'another').

Kings Worthy will be business as usual with the normal start and end time, on Monday.

If we win the final, then I am more than happy for our children to wear red, white and blue combinations or simply normal school uniform.

We may also enjoy highlight reels and reruns of the game. Come on England!

Summer Fair

Don't forget the KWPS Summer Fair starts at 1pm tomorrow – let's keep our fingers crossed for some blue skies.

10 Outstandings

Only a few more days to get those 10 Outstandings special headteacher award badges. This week it was Kaysan, Bertie, Eleanor, Patricia & Lena who joined the club.

Worthy's Festival

A date for your diary. On Saturday 14th September, Eversley Park will be hosting the Worthy's Festival. With free entry, you can enjoy craft stalls, dog show, food and drink, live music and lots more! Some of our children's art work will also be on display.

Worthy's Festival

There are also competitions for the children (under 12s) in the produce show. Including creature made from fruit and/or vegetables, miniature gardens (no bigger than 30cmx20cm), four decorated cupcakes or ten homemade sweets.

Maths Shed

What a week on the Maths Shed leader board! The Year 4 battle for top of the leader board continues! Well done to the individual winners! Have you done enough to become a half-termly winner?
